

MYSTERY SHOPPING REVEALED

Disclaimer: Do not redistribute this eBook

Can you imagine going shopping and using someone else's money to pay for your stuff? How would you feel going into your favorite local department store, pick out any items you wish, and not have to pay a dime for them? Welcome to the world of mystery shopping!

Almost every major department stores need mystery shoppers. Companies do not want to introduce products that don't appeal to the public. Mystery shopping is a way for companies to test their products. Furthermore, mystery shoppers allow companies to monitor the way each individual stores and their employees conduct business. Mystery shoppers are paid to see how friendly and helpful employees are in individual stores of large department chains. If they report bad service, the main company is then able to see the source of the problem.

All that you have to do is sign up! I have done the hard work for you by amassing the largest list of mystery shopping companies ever seen. All of these companies are hiring mystery shoppers. I advise that you sign up for as many as you can. Sign up for all of them! The more you sign up, the more assignments you will have, and the more you will get paid.
